SECTION TWO: RULES AND REGULATIONS

200 CONSENT TO TERMS OF TARIFF:

Use of the harbor and port facilities under the jurisdiction of the Ports of Indiana constitutes a consent to the terms and conditions of this Tariff, and constitutes agreement on the part of all vessels, their owners and agents, and other users of the Port to pay all charges specified, and to be governed by all rules and regulations contained herein.

202 COLLECTION OF CHARGES:

The Ports of Indiana charges as specified in this Tariff will be billed to the vessel, shipper, consignee, or other person as appropriate. Invoices may be issued by the Ports of Indiana's agents, its authorized stevedores, and such other third parties as the Ports of Indiana may appoint for that purpose from time-to-time. Invoices issued by others on behalf of the Ports of Indiana shall have the same force as if they were issued by the Ports of Indiana. Any vessel charges shall constitute a lien against the vessel and/or its agents. Any cargo charges shall constitute a lien against the merchandise or commodity. Any service charges shall be payable by the person requesting such service.

The Ports of Indiana reserves the right to estimate charges if necessary in order to make billing within seven (7) days of vessel departure. All bills are due on receipt. Any bills or portions thereof unpaid thirty (30) days after billing shall be deemed delinquent.

Presentation of invoices to vessel agents is done as a matter of accommodation and convenience, and shall not constitute a waiver of the lien for charges against the vessel for services and/or supplies furnished the vessel for which maritime law gives a lien. Under no conditions shall an invoice be altered by the recipients. Any apparent error should be submitted to the Ports of Indiana or invoicing party, which shall give prompt consideration to the claim and make any necessary adjustments. The Ports of Indiana reserves the right to apply any payment received against the oldest outstanding invoice.

The Ports of Indiana reserves the right to estimate and collect in advance the charges set forth in this Tariff if the financial responsibility of the vessel, shipper, consignee, or other party, as appropriate, has not been properly established to the satisfaction of the Ports of Indiana, and use of the Port's facilities may be denied or cargo removed until such advance payments or deposits are made.

204 BERTH ASSIGNMENTS:

Assignment of public and leased vessel berths shall be made by the Director. Any vessel entering the port's jurisdiction without an assigned and then available berth — public, leased, or private — shall tie or anchor only at such place as designated by the Director. Any vessel in violation of, or failing to comply with this rule will be fined $100 per hour during the time such violation continues.

206 APPLICATION FOR BERTH AND/OR ENTRANCE TO HARBOR:

Owners, captains, or agents of all vessels desiring to enter the Port shall make application to the Director for permission to do so, as far in advance of the date of entry as possible, in writing when possible, specifying the date and estimated time of arrival and the nature and quantity of cargo, if any, to be handled. Such vessel desiring berth space at wharves under the control of the Ports of Indiana, in addition to requesting permission to enter the harbor, shall also indicate in the application for harbor entrance, the desired date and time of docking. If the application is approved, the Director will so notify the applicant. The signed application form and the signed approval of the application form shall constitute a contract by and between the Ports of Indiana and the vessel, its owner(s), and agent(s).

208 HARBOR OF REFUGE:

Rules in Item Numbers 204, 206 and 252 will not apply when vessels are forced to use the Port as a harbor of refuge.

210 VACATING OF BERTHS:

Prior to completion of loading or unloading: In order to expedite the handling of vessels, when there are more vessels assigned to specific berths than can be accommodated at one time, vessels already in the berth shall be required, at the discretion of the Ports of Indiana, to work overtime at their own expense. Should such vessels elect not to work overtime, the berth shall be vacated. Failure to vacate the berth under such conditions will necessitate the vessel being moved by the Ports of Indiana at the vessel owner's risk and expense.

After completion of loading or unloading: After completion of loading or unloading, all vessels shall be required to vacate the berth promptly. At the discretion of the Ports of Indiana, two (2) hours grace may be allowed after completion of loading or unloading before sailing. Should any vessel fail to vacate the berth in accordance with the above conditions, the Ports of Indiana is authorized to remove the vessel at the vessel owner's risk and expense.

Vessels idle under repair or for other reasons: the Ports of Indiana reserves the right to order idle vessels from a working berth in order to make such berth available to other vessels prepared to work. Vessels berthed for repair shall be considered as idle vessels for the purpose of this paragraph. In the event it becomes necessary that any vessel be moved or the position changed in order to facilitate navigation or commerce, or for the protection of other vessels or property, the Ports of Indiana is authorized to order and enforce the removal of such vessel at the vessel owner's expense to such place as the Director may designate. In the event of the failure or refusal of the person in charge of such vessel to change the position thereof as directed, the Director is authorized to board such vessel, with such assistance as may be necessary, and to change the position thereof at the vessel owner's expense, and at the risk of such vessel.

212 RESPONSIBILITY FOR DELAYS:

The Ports of Indiana shall not be responsible for delays to vessels docked at or seeking berth at the public wharves, regardless of the cause. Such vessels and their owners and agents shall hold the Ports of Indiana harmless and indemnify the Ports of Indiana for any and all losses or claims resulting from any such delays.

Damage to the Ports of Indiana's wharves, sheds, other structures, or equipment by vessel or otherwise, must be reported immediately in writing to the Director, giving details of such damage, the date and time the damage occurred, together with the name of the vessel or other equipment and/or person causing said damage, and the names and addresses of any person or persons who witnessed the accident. The cost of repairs shall be assumed by the party causing the damage. All repairs shall be made promptly to the satisfaction of the Port Director. The Ports of Indiana will assume no responsibility for damage to user's vessel or equipment incurred for any reason whatsoever while within the confines of the Port. The Ports of Indiana accepts no responsibility for any damage to user's vessel or equipment which might occur while lowering or raising stevedore equipment into or out of vessels, nor for normal wear and tear of such vessels or equipment.

220 DAMAGE TO CARGO:

The Ports of Indiana is not liable and will not assume any responsibility for any loss or damage to cargo or other property while on the wharves, docks or other facilities under the administration of the Ports of Indiana, or for any damage or injuries to others by reason thereof.
