

Another advantage of locating operations at the Port of Indiana-Mount Vernon is the availability to solicit cargo handling quotes from onsite stevedoring operations. This allows quick response and complete understanding of the location.

Consolidated Terminals & Logistics Co. (CTLC)

CTLC, a division of CGB Enterprises Inc., provides cargo handling and transportation services for various cargos on domestic and international shipments. CTLC has extensive experience and major operations in the Gulf of Mexico, including midstream cargo transfers from barge to international ships. CTLC can provide customers with a complete logistics package from origin to destination including terminal handling, barge, ship, rail and truck services.

Onsite Cargo Handling Equipment:

- 1 – P&H Overhead Bridge Crane
 - 60-ton lift capacity with dual 30-ton hoists
 - Direct cargo transfer between barge, rail, truck and 58,000 sq.ft. warehouse
- 1– fork truck with lift capacity of 40 tons
- 2– fork trucks with lift capacity of 4 tons

Mt. Vernon Barge Service (MVBS)

Mt. Vernon Barge Service, a division of TPG Mount Vernon Marine, has provided quality harbor, repair and cleaning services to the inland waterways industry for almost 50 years. The company offers bulk handling and harbor services at the port so customers enjoy a one-stop shop for barge fleet, switching and bulk product unloading.

Onsite Cargo Handling Equipment:

- 2 – Manitowoc stick cranes
- 2 – 7-cubic-yard clam buckets
- 1 – front loader with 10-cubic-yard bucket

